

Health Information Technology: Patient Safety Issues & Cybersecurity

October 19, 2017
Webinar Month 107

For resource downloads go to:
www.safetyleaders.org

Anonymous Survey Questions

I am interested in MORE DETAIL regarding:
ELECTRONIC HEALTH RECORD & DIGITAL SOURCES OF HARM

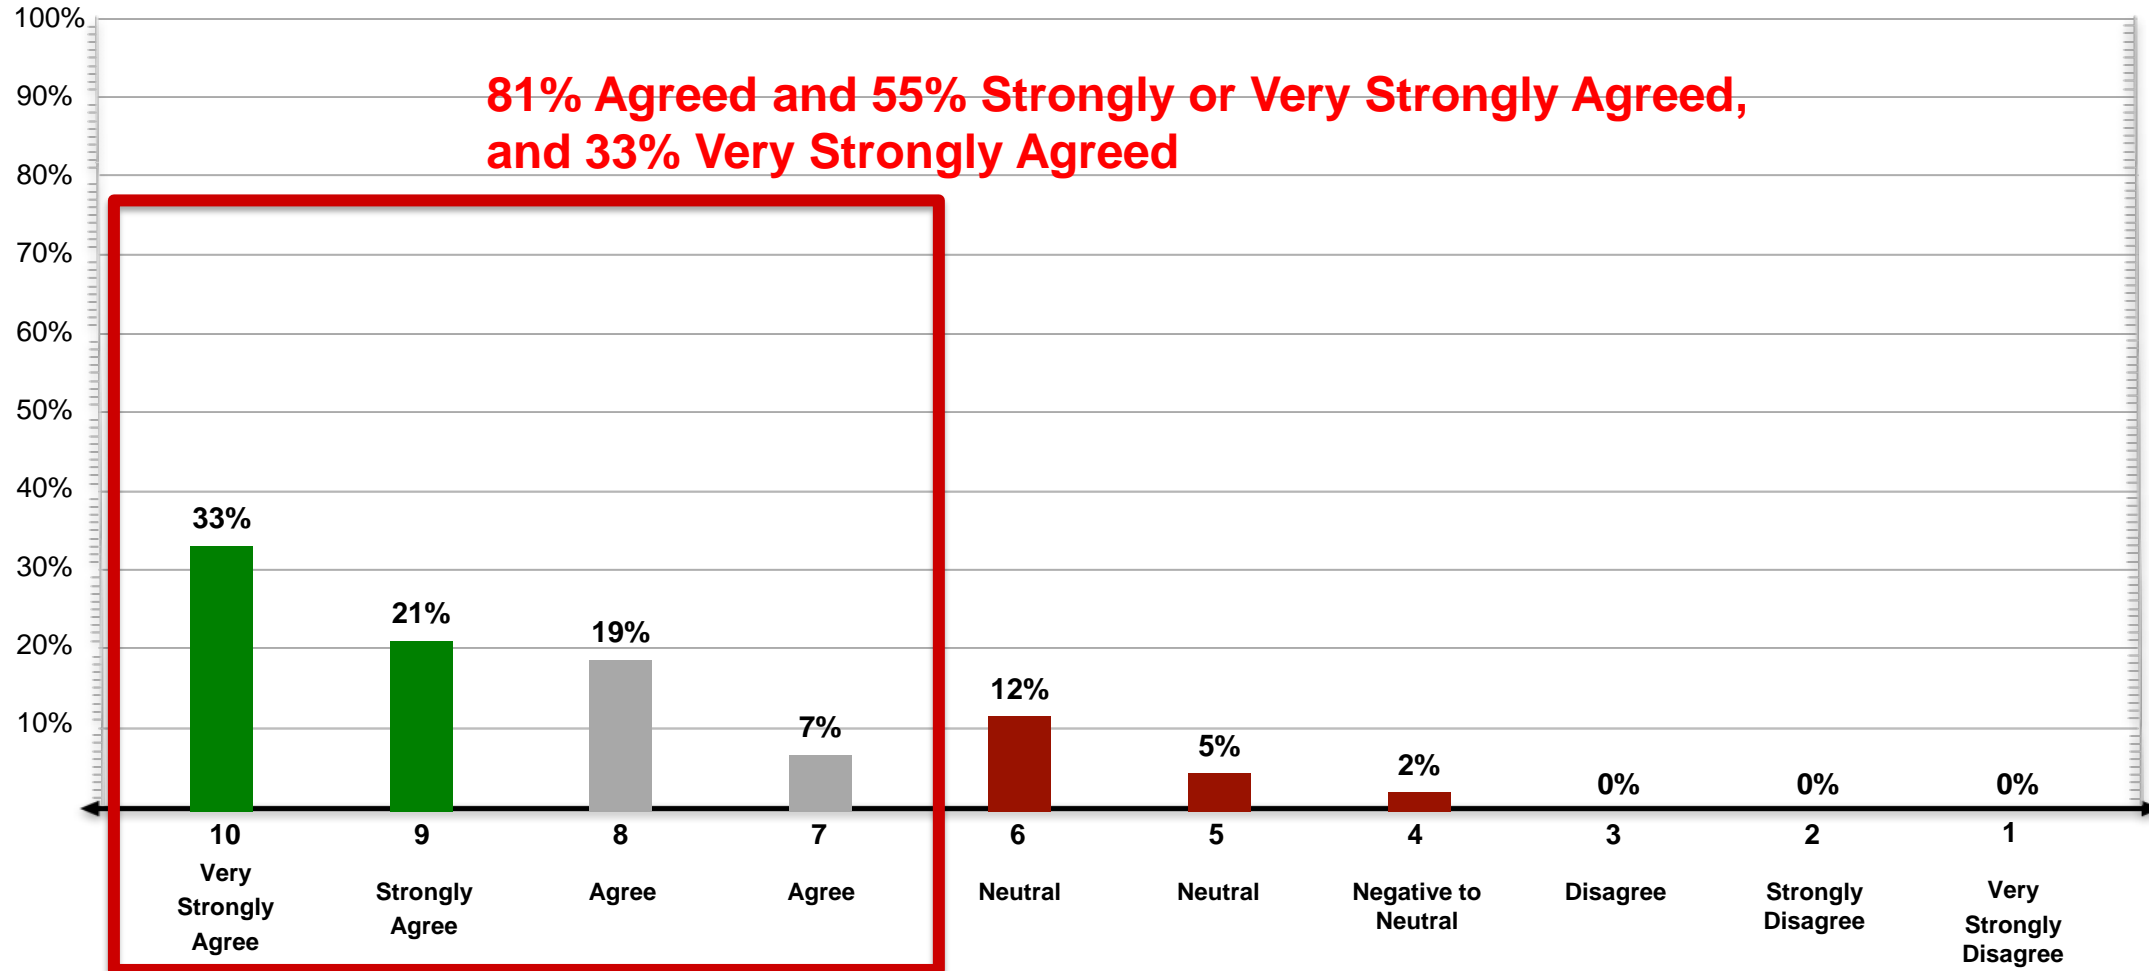

Source: TMIT High Performer Webinar Series; Health Information Technology: Patient Safety Issues & Cybersecurity: – October 19, 2017

Specific ELECTRONIC HEALTH RECORD & DIGITAL SOURCES OF HARM
Information I would like to be FURTHER covered include:

- Medical devices
- How do drugs get to non-prescribed users?
- Security loopholes, malware, risk assessment
- Physician offices, Medicare,
- How big data may influence the future of healthcare if erroneous information is entered into the EHR
- Reasonable password and other security measures
- Prevention
- Point click care
- Any
- Government issued cell phones and tablets security, government healthcare agencies
- sharing of health records.
- Multiple password solutions
- Development of common monitors leading to benchmarks for comparison of HER rates
- Is there a way to improve safe practice without changes in software?
- All
- Securing EHR sharing between health care providers and insurers; health insurance organizations' data breeches.
- Medical coders as an external agencies having access to our medical records.

Anonymous Survey Questions

I am interested in MORE DETAIL regarding:
AN UPDATE ON ADVERSE DRUG EVENTS

Source: TMIT High Performer Webinar Series; Health Information Technology: Patient Safety Issues & Cybersecurity: – October 19, 2017

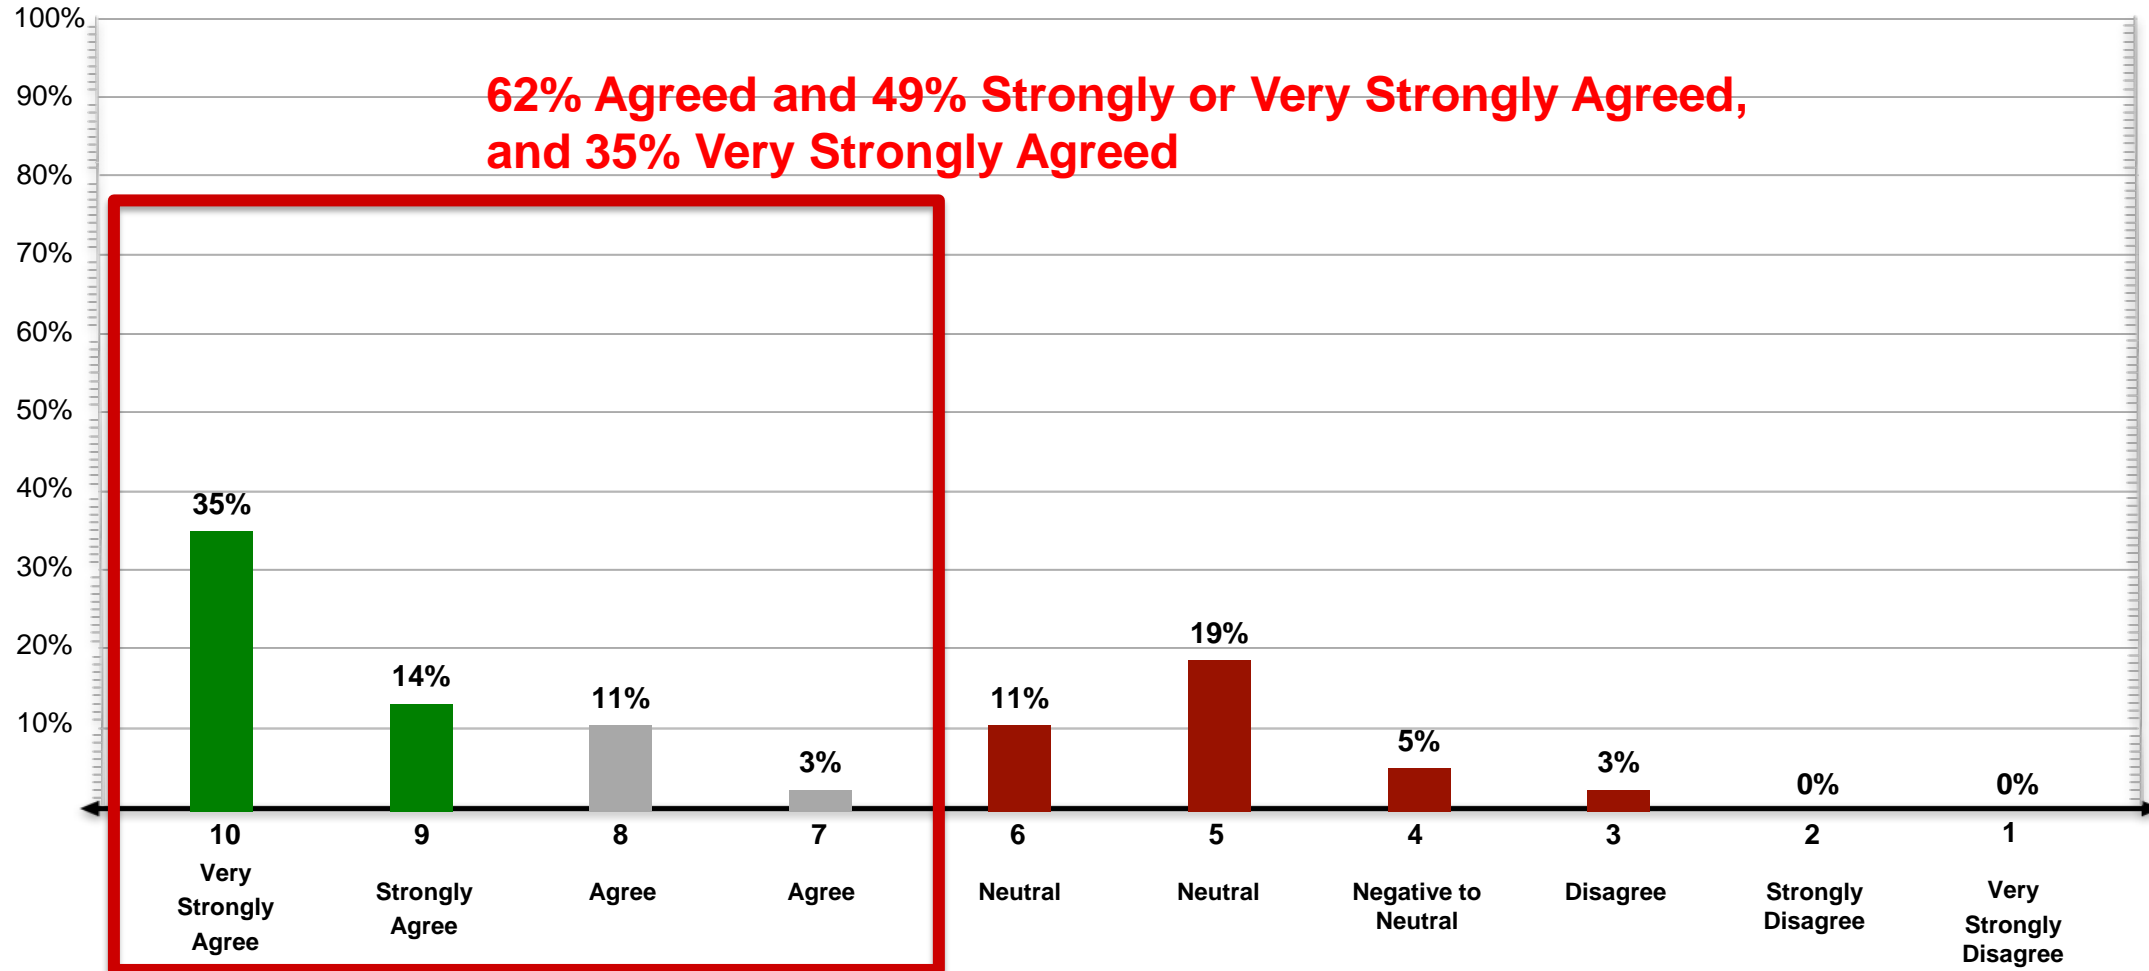

Specific AN UPDATE ON ADVERSE DRUG EVENTS

Information I would like to be FURTHER covered include:

- Discussion on most likely causes and types of meds. Ways to best avoid with EMR
- isn't there a place for opioids? Must we completely ban them?
- Polypharmacy and inappropriate meds
- Ability to support pain control in patients. Due to the problems, what alternatives in pain control will help support patients
- There is so much information to hear, hearing again is important to me! This is such a huge problem.
- Any
- Final decisions and actions on minimizing high alert medications
- Methods & processes for prevention that are as human-proof as possible
- All

Anonymous Survey Questions

I am need more help regarding:
SEPSIS

Source: TMIT High Performer Webinar Series; Health Information Technology: Patient Safety Issues & Cybersecurity: – October 19, 2017

Specific SEPSIS

Information I would like to be FURTHER covered include:

- How to get providers on board to administer 30 ml/kg as the bolus for patients with renal and/or heart failure
- Early signs are often missed so ways to address / identify.
- Faster recognition by bedside staff
- Shortening the ABX course for various diagnoses
- Current treatment for sepsis, CMS requirements
- UTI and skin ulcer
- This would be helpful for those of us who review records for potential peer review and also be educated on the newest data and practice changes
- Any
- Overprescribing of antimicrobials
- Developing practices for even earlier identification and preventive measures
- ER team training and ICU team training VS software algorithms for house-wide approaches for quality improvement?