

Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management

September 17, 2020
Webinar 146

For resource downloads go to:
www.safetyleaders.org

Anonymous Survey Questions

I have already responded to the Family Health Safety Survey

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020

Anonymous Survey Questions

My family is ready to take care of a loved one with Coronavirus in our home

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020

What READINESS information Would you like to have?

- Best prophylaxis
- Checklists
- Clear guidelines for care
- Fact sheets easy to follow guidelines
- General public information that can be used everywhere in the us
- Household issues, linens, dishes close contact
- How best to navigate the healthcare system during pandemics.
- How do I ensure that i am protecting my family when my children bring it home from school
- How to improve my health, what preventative things to do i.e. Zinc, vitamin D healthy eating exercise and rarely reorganization of symptoms that it is time to go to the hospital.
- How to treat within the home while maintaining appropriate isolation and cleaning
- Links to treatment information
- Prep
- Risks in exposure sites and contacts
- Standard steps (may be generic) to ensure a home is ready to deal with a COVID family member
- Step by step preparedness list of items recommended to have in the home to take care of a family member with the virus

Anonymous Survey Questions

My family knows what actions to take if a loved one becomes infected with Coronavirus.

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020

What information would help you RESPOND when a loved one becomes infected?

- A reference card that maybe poses best response recommendations
- Latest info on in home care to avoid hospital
- Best practice
- Modes of transmission
- Checklist
- Online protocol
- Clear guidelines
- Possible care tips
- Evidence based care
- Public informations
- Fact sheets easy to follow guidelines
- The testing
- Have plenty of resources
- To recognize symptoms to be exoected and alarm signs
- Having the proper safety measures in place, resource s in place in the community
- Understanding the disease process and having realistic expectation
- How to get the patient the appropriate level of care without having to present to the hospital.
- What to do if symptoms worsen
- When to leave the home to seek a higher level of care

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020

Anonymous Survey Questions

My family knows what do when someone develops severe COVID-19 symptoms.

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020

What information would help your family react if someone develops severe symptoms (Rescue)?

- Additional information about life threatening signs and symptoms
- Call md go to hospital er as directed
- Checklist
- Feel we would know what to do
- I don't know.
- I know the lay public would struggle with what to do, where to go, when to call the doctor vs when to go to the ed. Especially those with high risk co-morbidities.
- Just keep current guidelines coming
- Knowledge of what is able to be done to help themselves while protecting themselves.
- Online protocol
- Public information
- Quick reference guide pamphlets, mobile phone app. Similar to what FEMA has for weather conditions?
- Recovery
- Success rates
- Well educated on this
- What constitutes severe
- What to do, how to act, identify where to go to ed vs urgent care vs physicians office or ambulatory practice
- When are they really in trouble/danger

Anonymous Survey Questions

My family has a safety plan to return to work and play when the Coronavirus social restrictions are relaxed

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020

What information would help your family return to the new normal (Recovery)?

- Comparison information of what regions are doing experiencing similar numbers or phases.
- Don't think things will return to normal until we have have a safe and effective vaccination.
- Going back to some normal events
- Have their jobs reopen to standard staffing
- Home health care and a plan toward recovery given the age of the patient
- How to deal with the ptsd for this stress
- Less than 100 cases
- More testing in TX report rates pos
- Need to wait and see what the guidelines are
- Not sure at this time
- Public information
- What we expect in the next 6-12 months
- What's safe and not
- When to know it is safe

Anonymous Survey Questions

My family has a plan to make them less vulnerable to epidemics in the future

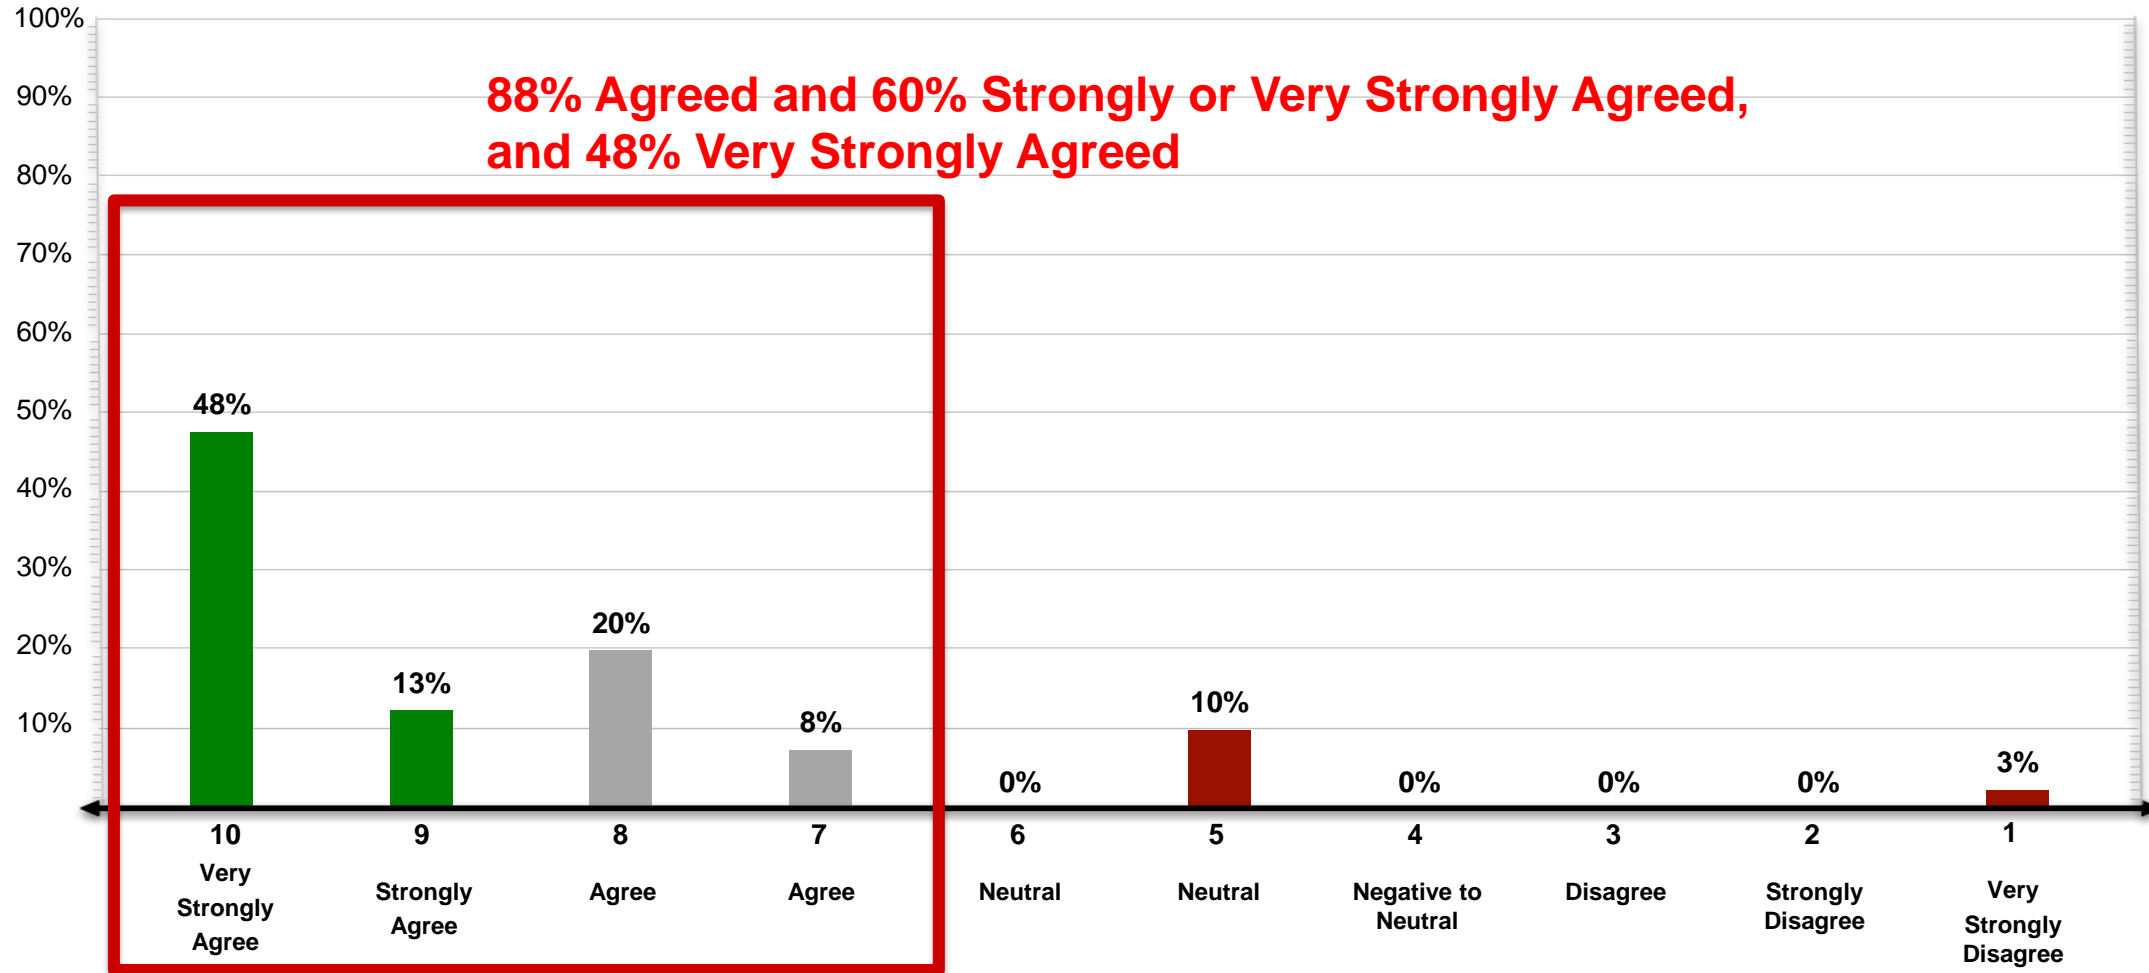

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020

What information would help you become more resilient in the future?

- Continued plans with covid other possible pandemics
- Crisis management, stress reduction, sleep
- Depends on transmission and early warning
- Education as knowledge is power
- Generic requirements needed to build resiliency where any additions would be minimal. Like a hurricane kit!
- Getting more information
- Latest research studies on rx
- More consistent , validated scientific information
- Need solid information early on about how to prevent spread of infection.
- Public information from the CDC
- Research
- Unknown what infection and sources or contacts, need for accurate trustworthy data to assist in response.

Anonymous Survey Questions

I would like a webinar on Pain Management & Adverse Drug Events.

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020

The topics I would like covered are:

- A culture of government leaders that are more focused on truth
- Antecedent strategies
- Drug drug interactions
- Family psyche with critically ill patients to ensure patient safety in COVID times with hospitals restriction of visitors
- How trends on manipulating pain management
- How to dissect an article for data that supports the findings --
- How to include nurses into reporting diversion
- How to manage and to identify
- Pain management
- Pharm
- Risk assessments
- Teaching people with pain with dignity is key to their care

Anonymous Survey Questions

As we focus on CARE OF THE CAREGIVER is an important area to address.

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020

What topics related to CARE OF THE CAREGIVER would you like to have covered?

- Anything relevant to diversion. caregiver
- Care for the families being overworked
- Caring for someone with potential for drug addiction.
- Educating the caregiver to strengthen their care and demands of particular cases, how to pace themselves and take breaks and self-care and protection.
- General importance of care for the caregivers and how to prevent burnout
- Haven't really thought about it, coping strategies for the added stress maybe
- How care givers can maintain a reasonably normal life : work : caregiver balance. Innovative solutions for respite for the
- How to recognize that you are stressed and need help
- I don't know
- Older caregivers with no assistance caring for another older caregiver
- Pharm
- Stress relief for front line workers
- Stress relieving techniques
- Support after sentinel event

Source: TMIT Global High Performer Webinar- Drug Diversion 2020 & The 5 Rights of Pain Management – September 17, 2020